Email: mel@bedellfirm.com

Michael has a diverse legal practice with experience litigating contract and other business disputes, professional malpractice, employment discrimination, personal injury, and family law matters. He has tried cases in both state and federal courts, and has argued before Florida's First District Court of Appeal and the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit.

Michael earned his undergraduate degree from Samford University in Birmingham, Alabama. After graduation, he was employed by the international accounting firm PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP. While working for PwC, he completed his master's degree at the University of Alabama at Birmingham. After being promoted to senior associate, he left PwC to attend law school at the University of Florida, where he graduated with honors.

Michael is actively involved in groups that serve the legal profession and community. Since 2011, Michael has served as a representative from the Fourth Judicial Circuit on the Florida Bar Young Lawyers Division's Board of Governors. He also serves as a board member of the Jacksonville Bar Association's Young Lawyers Section. In 2009, he was voted that section's most outstanding member.

Michael met his wife, Melodie, at Samford University. They have four sons: Chase, Maddox, Hudson, and Reece.
